

ARE YOU OUR NEXT LUMA?

KINNEVIK is looking for CEO Trainee #38, also known as LUMA. The LUMA works closely with the CEO and Kinnevik management team for a year and is provided the unique opportunity to get insight in how to run an international investment company.

The word LUMA is derived from the Latin word lumen, meaning light. For us, that means that we are looking for a person who is curious, humble, has an interest in business and can quickly adapt to new situations.

Does that sound like you? Read more and apply before October 31, 2022, at <https://www.kinnevik.com/team/luma>
